Dear Dr. Hermanto,

Thanks for your kind cooperation of the careful second proofreading.

Because the access date should be before the date when we received the manuscript, so we helped revise the access date for some website to 30 October 2021. And the "Srimulyani and Hermanto (2021)" in Table 1 was changed to "This study". Please confirm whether they are feasible.

And it's appreciated if you could check the online version (<https://www.mdpi.com/2227-7099/10/1/10>) of your paper and make sure all the references are cited correctly and correspondingly.

Thanks for your cooperation and understanding. We look forward to your reply soon. Have a nice day.

Kind regards,
Jessie Zang

Dear Dr. Hermanto,

Thanks for your carefully proofreading and timely confirmation.

We noticed there isn't citation of Table 1 in the introduction section. So I'd like to confirm that whether the sentence "Table 1 shows the summary of previous research studies and current research." could be added before Table 1, after the sentence "...and customer friendliness and hard work are also important for high-performing companies. "

We are appreciated for your kind cooperation in advance. Look forward to your reply.

Have a good one.
